

Introduction to Payroll Information

The Payroll Specialist makes every reasonable effort to provide payroll information to all employees of the District. However, it remains the individual's responsibility to become acquainted with all aspects of their employment with the District. We highly recommend that employees keep a copy of their Collective Bargaining Agreement available for reference at all times. Don't hesitate to call the Payroll Specialist or your union representative to clarify any question or concern.