

Teacher Certification

A current Washington State Teacher Credential must be on file in the District Office continuously from date of hire. It is the sole responsibility of the individual to know where their certificate is and to know the date of expiration and renewal processes. Should you have questions regarding certification, please contact Lilly Megard at 360-398-7111.